Dear Friends,

March was a blur for us and an awesome blessing to serve the Lord and you. It always is a blessing to fill each Sunday being in five different Pulpits. One of those Sundays was one of Hillcrest Baptist (Mishawaka, IN) missionary speakers for their month of "Missions".

Thank you for praying for impact on teens. We are still meeting with teens each Wed at Faith Baptist, Kenton, as they are looking for leaders to step in. Meeting with the teens is helping Ken to see current issues in the diversity of backgrounds of each teen. Pray for creativity and impact.

Ken was allowed to participate in a Celebration of Life of a good friend of ours, Doug Magin, Assistant Pastor of First Baptist of Troy. He impacted many over his years of ministry. It showed in those who came to honor his life.

Ken had the honor to attend and be the MC for the dinner celebration of the union of two friends. Connie Roberts and Gary Waltermire, who Ken and Pam knew as a teens. Ken built into Connie's life 2 years ago to take over as the leader at First Baptist of Findlay Olympians. Her first husband, Craig, went home to be with the Lord 15 months ago. It was a great God honoring wedding service led by their pastor, Mike Maskell.

Please keep praying as Ken continues to coach Missionaries in Asia 2, Korea, Philippines, New Zealand, Poland and Uganda as well as missionaries from America to Caribbean, Brazil, Australia, and Korea. Please continue to pray for wisdom and creativity. Ken has a graduation story in the April letter coming up!!! Thank you for being a blessing to the world by your partnership with us through your awesome encouragement, love, and prayers.

Please pray

- As we continue to coach each week in April and May.
- As we preach each Sunday and when at home minister each Wednesday to Faith Baptist Kenton Teens.
- Ken might be traveling to Florida to do training of missionaries with Ryan Williamson in May or June.

- Pray as Ken travels to NH to help Jamie Smith's team training missionaries with IBM Global.
- Pray we take vacation time in June.

Love ya Much!
