MULAR'S MESSAGE – March 2025

Greetings to you from Buenos Aires, Argentina!

The Lord has blessed our congregation during the past few weeks with the visits of several of the missionary couples that our church supports in Argentine provinces as well as in foreign countries ministering to us.

First came Gustavo and Beth López from Neuquén, and Horacio y Alejandra Luisi from Colima, México who also work helping the work of God in Cuba. Later came Dante and Jovita García from Malargüe, Mendoza, a city by the Andes mountains. Two Sundays ago, Juan and Karina Rios, from the province of Entre Rios and Pablo and Romina Simó from our neighboring country of Uruguay. God used each of them greatly and our people were blessed, challenged and encouraged by the messages. It was a wonderful time of fellowship. Sunday we will be making our Faith Promise commitment please pray that we will do more for Christ in this coming Missions Year.

Two weeks ago, I got up with the urgency to go visit a truck driver in the hospital dying from cancer. Daniel Rios, our son-in-law and I went to visit him. I had witnessed to Christian more than one time about 7 years ago.

Looking for him at the hospital we went to the wrong room, exiting that room, a man followed us, ask me if I was a preacher, when I told him yes, he pleaded with us to talk to his 35-year-old son suffering from terminal brain cancer. When we did present the gospel, not only Ivan, the son, but also his sister Micaela, her boyfriend, Santiago and the father of the man, named Julio, prayed to receive Christ as their Savior.

Next we went to see Cristian, shared with him the plan of salvation, but no matter how we tried, his repeated answer was, . . . "I'll think about it!". Exiting the room we talk to his broken hearted mother of this, her only son, thank God she prayed the sinners prayer.

Well, last Tuesday we went to Cristian's funeral, who as far as we know, went into eternity unprepared to meet God.

God never ceases to amaze us. His ways are indeed past finding out. Praise the Lord, he is still reaching out in his mercy and grace to all who would believe Him and receive Him as their Savior.

Please pray for us as we continue here telling people about Jesus. Thank you for partnering with us in carrying out the Great Commission, without you we could not do it!

The economic recovery of Argentina is taking a toll on the missionaries as cost of living has exactly double in only a matter of a years' time. Thank you for your prayers and faithful support!

Serving Him by serving others,

Al & Marty
