Dear Friends,

Thank you for your encouragement in February. It started with preaching at Agape Evangelical Chinese Church in Dayton. It ended on the 28th with Ken attending a Celebration of Life of one of our friends, Beth Meyerdirk, (she and her husband are missionaries to Hungary). Ken left straight from the church to the Detroit Airport to fly to Hungary to minister alongside Ryan Williamson and our International Ministries team with a Development Conference for some of our European missionaries.

In-between we had the privilege in coaching missionaries each week, preached in four churches and led the teens at Faith Baptist, Kenton, on Wednesdays. One of the churches we were at was Faith Baptist in Greenville who had us in as part of their Missions Month. We gave an update on our ministry and great fellowship with old and new friends. Thank you for praying as we preach and teach each week for clarity and application.

We had the joy of graduating two missionaries from our coaching in February. Niki (a Canadian) who is headed to Korea for a launch ministry (1-2 years). Also, Josh and Hilary Parker and their five children heading to Brazil. It is awesome to see their excitement. Only seeing four children? They had their 5th one last Fall. (For security reasons—not listing the children's names.) Thank you for praying for impact on each missionary Ken coaches!

Thank you for being partners with us in February. Thank you for each prayer shared on our behalf and for each expression of encouragement you have sent to us. You are being used By God for His glory in impacting the World through our ministry.

Please pray as

1. Todd Meyerdirk, Missionary to Hungary, faces life and ministry without his sweet Beth by his side.
2. Ken travels to Colorado Springs April 21-24th to a VIA Generosity Conference to be sharpened in encouraging and helping the missionaries he coaches each week.
3. As Ken is preaching in April. Still has April 26th and May 17th open.
4. As Pam is preparing to share with ladies at Mother's Day meeting in Colon, Michigan on May 9th.

Love ya Much!
